Honorable Stansfield Turner
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Admiral Turner:

As a follow-up to our recent hearings on Security Clearance Procedures in the Intelligence Agencies, the Oversight Subcommittee of the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence is interested in the personal backgrounds of employees of the Central Intelligence Agency who have become involved in espionage activities.

In particular, the Subcommittee would appreciate the following information on William P. Kampiles, Edwin Moore, Christopher J. Boyce and Andrew D. Lee: Age upon entry on duty, hometown, educational background, position(s) held at CIA, pay level upon entry, pay increases received, any financial irresponsibility noted, marital status, indications of performance during employment, indications of personal problems during field investigation or during employment, type of information compromised and motivation for espionage activities.

Thanking you for your attention in this matter and with every good wish, I am

Sincerely yours,

EDWARD P. BOLAND
Chairman
